Resources for the Education of Adults in the Chicago Area

OUR MISSION

REACH is a not-for-profit consortium of academic institutions, businesses, organizations and individuals whose mission is to present educational opportunities to adult learners in the Chicago area.

Central to this mission is a commitment to provide adult learners with information and accessibility to educational and financial resources resulting in the enhancement, personal growth and potential career advancement emerging as enlightened members of a global community.

Our members include academic institutions representing technical, vocational, undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs, financial institutions, and civic minded corporations.

Central to REACH's mission is a commitment to provide adult learners with information and accessibility to educational and financial resources.
